

Title: What is research in mathematics education?

Abstract: In this presentation I will provide an overview of what it means to do research in mathematics education and explain the PhD path in math ed in our department. I will also share some examples from my own research in equity in mathematics teaching and learning.